The Prentice Family Mailer

Monthly Feature: "Starting from scratch"

By Mike Prentice

I Just wanted to see if any of the family would be interested in having a monthly (or quarterly) Prentice Family Mailer?

We could set it up to be something like this and everybody can add things to it by mail or e-mail.

If you like the idea please e-mail me and let me know.

I will need a lot of help from all of you to make this work.

Wouldn't you like to hear what some of the other family members are doing?

Anniversaries?

Vacations?

Reunions?

How about Birthday's?

Who came to dinner?

Graduation?

Grand Kids? (in our case Grand Dog)

Hobbies?

Prentice Member Updates

Mike & Linda just returned for a trip to the East Coast Line with their friends Lenny & Bev Mistretta from Evergreen Colorado.

Not only did we have a great time seeing the Lighthouses and feasting on Seafood for seven days but we also got to spend a day in Boston Ma. with my little sister Peggy and her husband Gerry Gavin.

Peggy sure knows how to be a tour guide. I think I went through a pair of shoes trying to keep up with her. Thankx again Peg.

Upcoming Events

- Linda's Birthday December 14th

And The Last Word Goes To?

Me (Mike): We can use something like this, not only for us elder Prentice's to know what the kids are doing, but what about the younger one's that know nothing about thier family history Let me know what you think about this and send me some information that I can use.

PRENTICE REUNION II JUNE 25th. 2005

Well, as most of you know by now the "Prentice Reunion II is set for June 25th. in tennessee.

After months, I mean months of work Peggy came up with a great location for the reunion.

It seems to have everything we need to make it fun and entertaining for all.

If you haven't made plans, you better do it quickly while there are cabins left.

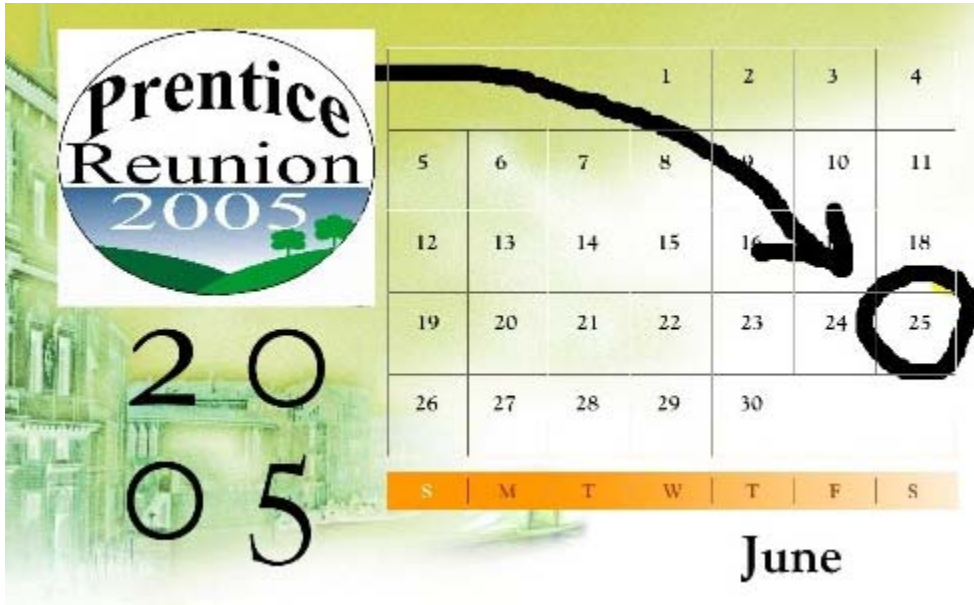

This place is great for a bigger group to share a cabin and share the expences.

PRENTICE REUNION II JUNE 25th. 2005

A man was telling his neighbor, "I just bought a new hearing aid. It cost me four thousand dollars, but its state of the art. It's perfect."

"Really," answered the neighbor. "What kind is it?"

"Twelve-thirty."

Things I learned from Hurricane Charley

- * Coffee and frozen pizzas can be made on a BBQ grill.
- * No matter how many times you flick the switch, lights don't work without electricity.
- * He who has the biggest generator wins.
- * Women can actually survive without doing their hair--you just wish they weren't around you.
- * There are a lot more stars in the sky than most people thought.
- * A 7 lb bag of ice will chill 6-12 oz Budweiser's to a drinkable temperature in 11 minutes, and still keep a 14-pound turkey frozen for 8 more hours.
- * Just because you're over 21 doesn't mean you can stay out as late as you want. At least that's what the cops told me during a curfew stop.
- * Some things do keep the mailman from his appointed rounds.
- * Tele-marketers function no matter what the weather is doing.
- * If I had a store that sold only ice, chainsaws, gas, and generators...I'd be rich.
- * The price of a bag of ice rises 200% after a hurricane.
- * Drywall is a compound word, take away the "dry" part and it's worthless.

PRENTICE REUNION II JUNE 25th. 2005

I learned a valuable computer lesson from the hurricane and I would like to share it with you. Some of you computer nerds may already know this. It's so easy I think even Peggy can do it.

How to save your "Internet Explorer Favorites" to your hard drive.

- 1- Click My Document and make a new folder and name it "My Favorites".
- 2- Open Internet Explorer.
- 3- Click File> Import and Export and follow the Wizard.
- 4- Select Export Favorites. Your favorites folder will be highlighted.
- 5- Click next and you will be asked where to export. By default the Wizard will suggest My Documents.
- 6- Use the browse button to locate and highlight the My Favorites sub-folder that you created.
- 7- Click save and you are done.

If you ever lose them, now just go to My Documents and you will find them saved there. You should every once and in a while, save your new favorite to this folder, just in case.

Linda and I want to thank everyone for their kind words and phone calls checking up on us. It sure is comforting.
